Girls Night Out at the Museum!

Make a Silk Scarf in May

The Canton Museum of Art will host the 5th “Girls Night Out at the Museum” on Tuesday, May 22, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. This special program is an opportunity for women to experience the Museum, network and explore an art project.

May 22 “Girls Night Out” will feature silk-scarf making with fiber artist, Laurel Winters. Using a variety of dye and painting techniques, attendees will create (and take home) a piece of wearable art.

The Museum hosts “Girls Night Out” on one Tuesday evening each month. Attendees share wine and explore a new art project. Upcoming “Girls Night” on June 26 will feature artist Clare Murray Adams and photo transfer techniques.

The registration cost of $25 includes project materials and wine. Participants must be 21 years of age or older. Register online at www.cantonart.org, or call 330-453-7666
